Fond Thoughts And Pleasant Memories

DESIDERATA

(Found in old Saint Paul's Church, Baltimore — 1692)

Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.

Donna and Cleopatra work on the final draft.

This volume evinces the fact that the Rappahannock staff eventually got busy and found that being knee deep in photographs, with their fingers into the glue, copy sheets, typewriter ribbons, and fund raising campaigns, could actually be rather enjoyable. We now look back and realize that the bickering, the panic sessions, the mounds of photos and paper, and the gray hairs added to Mrs. Sampson's head represent to us the high point of this school year. Indeed, we sincerely hope that you, the reader, will enjoy reliving a few moments of this year with the compliments of the 1972 Rappahannock staff.

To You We Dedicate

Because she has worked for and with us, because she has given generously of her time and wisdom — words are a poor substitute with which to express our sincere respect and admiration for this woman. She is the Junior Class Sponsor and she teaches United States History and American Government.

Everyone respects this teacher and looks to her for advice and help. She is never too busy to stop and talk with a student or to help the school in any way.

In appreciation for such devoted service, the annual staff proudly dedicates the 1972 RAPPAHANNOCK to MRS. META T. SAMPSON.
